Donna Gotschalk, treasurer, gave a report stating that there is now $6938.56 in the treasury

President Stalker suggested that we keep the first meeting of the month as an educational meeting which is a plus for the members.

This also is a plus to our community and keeps up our obligation to the Garden to educate the people.

On April 1st, Donna Gotschalk and Scott Layher will give an educational power point talk on HDR. (High Dynamic Range.) Studio Group will meet March 13th. Members are asked to bring in hats and will photograph each other with head and shoulder shots.

On May 16th the members of the two Improving Your Photography Classes are asked to meet at Sidecut Park for a Photo Shoot. Use the Silver Lake entrance. PACT members are asked to meet and assist the classmates with shooting questions. This will take place from 2:00-6:00. Family members are welcome. This is to put into practice what you have learned. A certificate will be given to any student attending who attended at least 5 classes on the last day of school.

Steven Stalker asked Wennie Anderson to be the PACT official photographer. Ms Anderson Accepted the challenge.

The Annual Contest was discussed and the due date for prints is March 19th. Members will be notified

A motion to end the meeting was made by Ben Anderson and seconded by Al Henderson at 9:00PM
